NDF Marches on White Unity Day

Pursuant to its declaration of the third Saturday in January being White Unity Day, the National Democratic Front staged its first march on January 16, 1988 in Raleigh, North Carolina. On a sunny and crisp winter day, approximately 65 NDF members and supporters gathered to celebrate White Unity Day. In the front rank of the march was an extraordinary eighteen foot long banner painted by professional portrait artist Will White just for the occasion. Will also does illustrations for The Nationalist in which he uses his initials WWW and the U.S. flag in distress as his logo. Following the banner came the flag-bearers who carried both NDF flags and Rebel flags.

The procession took two trips around the Confederate Memorial grounds in downtown Raleigh as the marchers enthusiastically chanted a series of slogans including: "White Pride - World Wide", "What do we want? - A White Nation!", "Whites Must Unite and Fight", and "One, two, three, four kick the bankers out the door!"

At the Confederate Memorial speeches were given by Gordon Gray and Gary Gallo of the NDF, and by John and Tom Metzger. John Metzger is the leader of the the Aryan Youth Movement-White Student Union which has 15 chapters around the country, and his father, Tom, leads the largest White Nationalist organization in the West - the White Aryan Resistance. A handful of freaky Marxists who looked like they had just stepped off a 1960's stage set attempted to heckle the speakers, but they were drowned out by the cheering of the marchers for the inspiring speeches. The event has been preserved on an excellent videotape of the march which is advertised elsewhere in this issue.

In his speech Tom Metzger eulogized Bob Mathews, the founder of The Order, who gave his life fighting for his race in revolutionary struggle. On January 16th Mathews would have been 35 years old.

This march was the first of many for the NDF as it establishes its presence on the streets. The next NDF march will be in Colonial Heights, Virginia in April. GG

Blacks Fight Blacks in South Africa

Since September of 1984, South African Blacks have killed close to 2500 fellow Blacks in an internal war for political dominance. Some of the killings have been carried out by the African National Congress which burns to death suspected government collaborators in gasoline-filled tires called "necklaces". But most have been killed in the struggle between the militant United Democratic Front and the conservative Inkatha. The UDF is allied with the outlawed ANC and acts as its legal political arm in South Africa. The Inkatha, which is nearly one million strong in membership, is led by Zulu Chief Mangosuthu Gatsha Buthelezi who rules over six million Zulus. The Inkatha is by far the largest political organization in the country even though the UDF is allied with the Congress of South African Trade Unions which encompasses almost all of the Black trade unions in the country. There are approximately 26 million South African Blacks.

ZULU NATION

The Inkatha is against the placing of trade sanctions against South Africa and wants to negotiate a settlement with the Whites whereby the Zulus are granted their own independent nation. The UDF, on the other hand, wants the entire country united under its rule, or rather under the rule of the communist African National Congress.

The most recent fighting between the Inkatha and the UDF took place over the last two months in Natal. Over 200 Blacks have been killed in this latest battle which was sparked by an Inkatha recruiting drive in the townships around the provincial capital of Pietermaritzburg. The UDF tried to break up the drive in typical communist fashion - by killing the recruiters. But Buthelezi responded by commiting more and more force to the drive to the UDF's present great discomfort.

On December 6th, Bishop Desmond Tutu, the 1984 Nobel Peace Prize winner, said, "The shocking carnage in Pietermaritzburg has to stop," and he attempted to mediate a settlement. But Buthelezi was not impressed since Tutu openly backs the ANC and its necklacing, and since Tutu only found the violence shocking after a month of warfare in which the tide turned in Inkatha's favor.

SINN FEIN - OURSELVES ALONE

After Tutu failed to gain a peace he naturally charged that the

OLIVER TAMBO

Natal violence between the two Black groups was generated by the maintenance of "hard-core" apartheid. The Black man always blames his failures and travails on the White which is why no one in the world respects the Black. When the Black realizes this he often feels betrayed because he mistakes the pity of his trendie Leftie, Jewish, and/or communist friends for genuine respect. But the world will only respect the Black race when it begins to build and ceases to destroy, and it can only do so when it takes responsibility for its own fate. "Ourselves alone" is the only operating principle that can save the Black race, or any other race for that matter. The ANC which is ruled by Jewish and Soviet masters can never embody this principle. Perhaps Inkatha can. GG

Broder Bemoans NFL Strike

GENE UPSHAW

The Washington Post's famous political columnist, David Broder is very unhappy that NFL fans came out to watch the replacement teams and says that it indicates that Americans do not care about quality. Broder has apparently felt this way since the Newspaper Guild called a strike against the Washington Post. "The readers found the wire-service stories that replaced our sparkling prose quite adequate for their needs, and we came crawling back to work without achieving our contract goals," he writes. We have another interpretation of these events.

QUALITY OF PRIMARY CONCERN

Americans care very much about quality and that is why, for example, they have not abandoned German and Japanese products despite the fact that the dollar has fallen in value every month since September 1985 making these products more expensive month by month. Not only have Americans not switched to cheaper and lesser quality domestic alternatives, but rather they continue to buy more foreign products as evidenced by the ever increasing trade deficit that the falling dollar was supposed to rectify.

In regard to the NFL, a lot of people were curious to see how much real difference there was between NFL players and NFL rejects, and were pleased to find that indeed there was very little. It reminds one of of the story of Paul Brown who in the '50s put together a professional team called the Browns from NFL rejects. The Browns dominated NFL teams. He proved that the so-called experts did not do a very good job in selecting talent and did not do a very good job in coaching talent. The NFL strike proved once again that our experts and our professional players are overrated.

SECOND-RATE WRITERS

The same is true of Newspaper Guild reporters and columnists. It was refreshing to get straight news without it being propagandistically slanted by the "sparkling prose" of the Post's writers. Indeed, most people found that they could interpret events quite nicely without Broder's help. Moreover, people resent the political power of newspaper reporters and columnists as much as they resent the huge money made by pea-brained sports stars, and most were happy to see them taken down a notch.

Unfortunately, the collapse of these strikes only helps greedy capitalist owners make more money and concentrate more power in their own hands, so the people lose either way. Like all Blacks who fail, NFL union leader Gene Upshaw blamed his incompetence on White racism, but if he had just used his head we could have had a much more interesting game. Upshaw could have used union funds to purchase uniforms and rent facilities to play alternative football games. One of the TV networks would surely have paid a substantial amount of money to televise the real NFL games while the owners put on scab games. The real Dallas Cowboys could have played the real Washington Redskins in a college stadium while the scabs played at the regular stadium. Which would the fans come out to see? Which would the TV fan turn to? With a little intiative and organizational ability, Upshaw could have faced the NFL owners with an alternative league virtually overnight. Now that would have been fun and would have been good for the fans. Good job Gene! GG

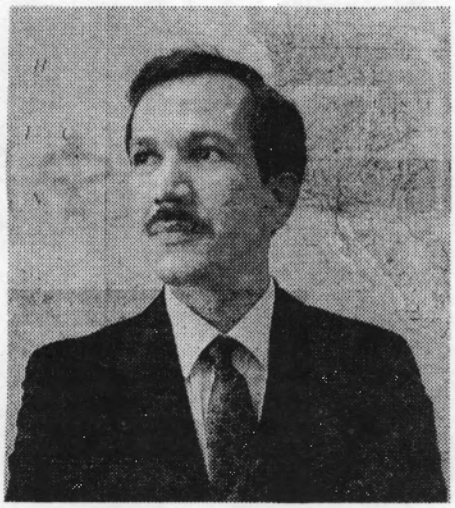
Communists Plunder Nicaragua

The motto of the Communist is "From each according to his ability - to each according to his needs." But it seems that in every "workers paradise" established so far the workers in the Communist Party need so much more than any of the other workers. Nicaragua is no exception. The Communist elite are paid part of their salaries in U.S. dollars so that they can shop in special stores, ostensibly set up for foreigners, which are stocked with luxury items unavailable to the ordinary Nicaraguan. When President Daniel Ortega visited America in 1985, he and his girlfriend Rosa Murillo (another champion of the proletariat) went on a New York shopping spree. At one store they bought $3500 worth of designer eyeglasses - an absolute must in a workers paradise.

Recently, Major Roger Miranda defected from Nicaragua to the U.S. and described the personal corruption of the top Communists in stunning and disgusting detail. Miranda was Defense Minister Humberto Ortega's top aide. Humberto is Daniel's brother. Miranda lived rent-free in a large walled-in villa outside Managua. He had two Toyotas and a driver at his disposal, and he did not pay for gasoline, electricity or other services. But compared to his boss, Humberto, Miranda was a pauper. Humberto Ortega owned several houses and cars and a Swiss bank account which held $1,494,596.00 when Miranda defected. Miranda knows because he was responsible for diverting the money from ministry funds into the account on Ortega's orders.



MAJOR ROGER MIRANDA

Miranda also revealed that Nicaragua intends to build its army to 600,000 troops even though there are only 3,000,000 Nicaraguans. This was confirmed by an announcement from the Nicaraguan Defense Ministry which claimed that the buildup was for "defensive" purposes. This would be the equivalent of America building up its military to 50,000,000 fighters. Even in the Second World War we armed only 11,000,000.

Nicaragua, like all of its Communist brethren, is a dictatorship of the Communist Party and not of the proletariat. The workers have as little say in a communist state as they do in a capitalist state. In both capitalism and communism the elites exploit the workers for their own benefit and lie to try to coverup their profiteering. GG

Dear Gary,

Whenever I talk to people about the Jews, like you and others do, I find it hard to convince them because they all had or have personal experience with Jews that do not coincide with my statements. Don't you think it is about time to separate the Jewish supremacist from the Jewish people.

Thanx for everything you are doing,
Ray Politowicz
Spring Hill, Florida

Editor - When properly presented the Jewish issue has a powerful effect because the Jews are so obviously hypocritical in their positions (e.g. Israeli apartheid vs. South African apartheid). It is not Jewish "supremacists" that send over $800 million every year in contributions to Israel and who contribute hundreds of millions more to buy our politicians so that they will send billions more in aid. No, it is the Jewish people who do this. Eventually, the Jewish mask will slip, as it already has in Israel, and Americans will see the Jews for what they really are. Our approach is to preach the truth wherever it may lead because as Whites we are driven to do this and cannot live in a world of lies.

Dear Sir,

Enjoy your literature, but wish it could be a bit longer. I will try to send in a small donation monthly....

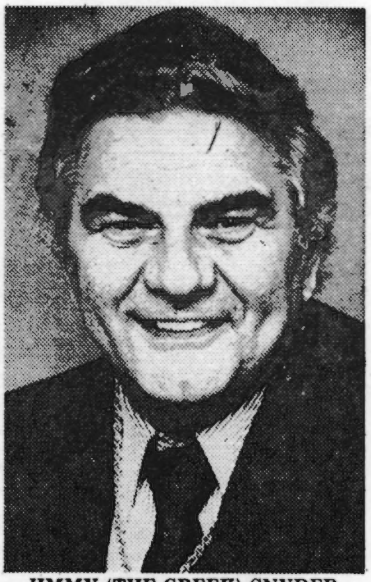
SHORT BURSTS

The Greek Fires Himself

The latest casualty of the American free speech myth is Jimmy (the Greek) Snyder who dared to lament in an off the cuff TV interview that Blacks are taking over American sports. "They've got everything. If they take over coaching, like everybody wants them to, there's not going to be anything left for the White people," said Jimmy.



JIMMY (THE GREEK) SNYDER
...dismissed for racial remarks

Brent Musburger, the Greek's colleague on CBS Sports, said that Snyder fired himself. Careful Brent, you don't want to hang yourself - we have long memories and there will be a final Judgement Day for race traitors.

Snyder's comment reflected the truth as seen by every White sports fan. All are uneasy about the growing scarcity of White players and this is good because once the teams are all Black and the coaches are all Black, and we still get the pants beat off us by all-White East German and Soviet teams maybe then the couch potatoes will break the death grip of the sofa and stand up to support White Nationalism.

Jews Worried By Survey

Disturbed by recent events in the Midwest, the Jewish Anti-Defamation League hired the Louis Harris organization to take a poll in Nebraska and Iowa in 1986. The Jews were not happy with the results.

Harris found that 75% of those polled agreed that the Reagan Administration and big international bankers were responsible for farm woes. A 45% plurality of those over 65 endorsed the statement that Jewish bankers were behind farm woes. The elders grew up before the media masters created the Memory Hole on the Jewish question, but even the younger generations seem aware of the problem as altogether 27% of the respondents blamed Jewish bankers. Further, 48% of all high school graduates agreed that Jews complain too much about the Holocaust.

A 1985 nationwide Harris poll found that 29% of the American people characterize the Jew as being more concerned with money than people, but in Iowa the figure was 39% and in Nebraska 48%. Since polls measure what people think they should say rather than what they really believe, it is clear that open anti-Semitism is much more accepted in the farm belt than elsewhere in the country, and this jibes with the findings of experts on propaganda who say that it is much more difficult to indoctrinate farmers than city-dwellers because they receive far fewer total media messages and because they are subject to less social pressure. Too bad for the Jewish media masters.

Jews Beat and Starve Arabs

Upset by the bad international press that they have received for shooting unarmed teenagers to death, the Israelis are now trying a different approach in handling Palestinian rioters. Defense Minister Rabin announced that the teenage rioters would be beaten upon arrest, and said that now the Israeli soldiers "will break their bones." New nightsticks, the size of baseball bats, have been issued to the troops for this purpose. The Jewish troops are apparently carrying out their new orders with enthusiasm. U.N. health workers in the Jabaliya refugee camp reported treating 52 residents for severe beatings meted out by the Jews on the first day of this new "humane" approach. The doctors had to treat multiple fractures and deep lacerations. In Shuafat in East Jerusalem soldiers raided the homes of Palestinian youths at night in order to find them and beat them senseless in front of their families. No doubt it is the "humanity" of the Jews that the Arabs will remember from all this.

Palestinian camps and towns that are complying with the commercial strike by Arab shop owners are being deprived of food and water by the Israeli Army. Some camps in Gaza have been cut off for thirteen days and hunger is knawing at the Palestinian population. The U.N. Relief and Works Agency has protested bitterly to the Israeli government, but to no avail. If the Jews do not relent starvation and diseases caused by malnutrition will ravage the populations of the camps, and then no doubt the Jewish-controlled TV networks in the U.S. will broadcast more specials and movies on Arab terrorism along with their regular Holocaust fare.

LAND OF THE FREE?

In America Whites were once free to express racist and nationalist opinions and sentiments, but no more. We were once free to educate our children in any manner that we wished. Americans were once free to associate with anyone they liked and disassociate with anyone they did not like. We were once free to go to local schools, to sell our homes to anyone we liked, to hire or fire anyone we liked. There was a time when our people lived free of fear and didn't need deadbolts or even locks on their doors. That this seems hard to believe tells you just how far we have degenerated.

The Tyranny that we now live under has decided that these freedoms are of minor importance compared to the building of a multiracial society in which our descendants will all have coffee-colored skin, kinky hair, and flat noses. All except the rich ruling class, of course, which will still be mostly White just as it is in multiracial India because the wealthy can always buy out of their social experiments - and they always do. You don't see the Kennedys sending their kids to integrated public schools. As Ted Kennedy once said, it is the perogative of the wealthy to choose any school they like. He is right - the rich are always free. But for the rest of us the choices imposed by the tyranny are more difficult.

Is a man who is arrested for trying to educate his children at home, rather than send them to private or public schools that preach multiracialism, a common criminal or a political prisoner? Is a man who refuses to pay taxes to a System he does not believe in a common criminal or a political prisoner? Is a man who refuses to register for the draft because he does not want to fight for the tyranny we live under a common criminal or a political prisoner? Are those arrested in protests for trying to stop the spread of nuclear power or chemical pollution common criminals or political prisoners? The truth is: you are free only as long as you conform to the prevailing system, or to put it more succinctly: freedom is a fraud.

Those of us involved in the White Nationalist Movement know the lengths to which the System will go through both its governmental and non-governmental arms to prevent us from getting our message out. For speaking the truth about race and nationalism we have been fired from our jobs; we have been forced out of our leased offices; we have had our bank accounts cancelled, our phones bugged and our mail monitored. The FBI, the Communists and the Jewish Anti-Defamation League collect information on where we work, who our friends are and where our children go to school, and they send their agents to disrupt our legal political operations and to instigate illegal acts of violence to discredit us. Such is the nature of freedom in the "land of the free and the home of the brave." And this is good because it toughens us, and only the strongest will survive in the monumental struggle to save our Race and Nation.

If you are one of the few brave enough to be truly free, then contact us: National Democratic Front, P.O. Box 915, Washington Grove, MD 20880; (301) 670-0159.
